PTHA PRESIDENT'S CORNER

PTHA PRESIDENT
Robert "Bob" Hutt

As 2024 fades away into our rear view mirrors and a New Year begins I prefer to look forward toward a brighter and sunny future. To say the least, 2024 was a very tumultuous year in many ways as there's no need to rehash it in this column. Just know that I was duly elected to represent all of you the 2,500 hardworking wonderful PARX horsemen. I plan to do just that with every ounce of my being! If I see injustice I will call it out as I will never sweep anything under the rug as a few prefer that I do. I plan on holding many General Meetings as you deserve the opportunity to have your voices heard. You are not alone as I ran on a platform of full transparency and have kept my word. Our PTHA Bylaws permit and encourage your Advisory Committee to sit in and attend our Board meetings which I'm proud to say that we have enacted.

On a sad note our turf course presented many problems this past year. Out of adversity I am pleased to announce that we've had very encouraging ongoing conversations with Senior Management at PARX Casino, our partner, who has pledged total support and cooperation in fixing the turf course. Under consideration is repairing, replacing, or even eliminating the turf course and installing an all year round Tapeta (Poly Turf). It's very refreshing in that both PARX Casino Senior Management and your PTHA both want to make PARX the shining star in the MidAtlantic region!

Toward that goal there is continued dialogue in evaluating each other's AI data to explore the many different ways to increase field size which will lead to increased parimutuel revenues as well as larger purses for you the PARX horsemen. I'm proud to announce that we're exploring a virtual Condition Book that owners, trainers, and the Racing Office can all point to with confidence for a specific race. It used to take the NFL six months to make up their schedule. Today using AI data it takes them 15 minutes. There is absolutely no reason why AI data can't do the same for all the horsemen at PARX which will lead to increased field size, larger revenue streams, as well as eliminate any need for more than a few extra races. In this day and age ninety-three percent of all successful businesses all use AI data. We need to leave the Stone Age behind if we are to grow our industry and be successful. I'm proud that under my leadership your PTHA Board voted to engage in using AI data just like our partner the casino who relies heavily on data to run their successful business. We need to do the same.

In the next few months I'm very excited as the casino and your PTHA will combine our collective data to promote racing as we hope to bring in many new fans to both the racetrack and casino as we are partners, not competitors. Yes indeed our future looks very bright. There are many new good things on my agenda for 2025 that hopefully will bring you even greater prosperity. You can always find me on the frontside as I am always approachable. Your problems are my problems as that's why I ran for President. If you have an idea or suggestion please never hesitate to let me know. You are never alone as it's my honor, as well as my duty, to represent and serve you.

In closing, from all of us at the PTHA, to all of you and your loved ones, I would like to take this opportunity to wish you a Healthy & Happy New Year! Together let's strive to make all our hopes and dreams come true. Wishing you many trips to the Winner's Circle in 2025.

Update from
PTHA Executive Director

Happy New Year to you and your families! As we turn the page into 2025, we have a lot to look forward to and build upon here within our PTHA program. On-track, we will remain constant with 49 weeks of Live-Racing action, highlighted by PA Derby Day, Owners Appreciation Day, Smarty Jones Day, & PA Day at The Races. These days, combined with daily competitive purses offered every Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, make up our Live-Racing cards for the year.

Mark your calendars, Pennsylvania Derby Day is Saturday, September 20th. Please continue to check in with our office on special event days, family-fun days, golf outing dates, promotional giveaway days, and even added race days as we get through the first few weeks of 2025.

The sole purpose of the PTHA is to represent the horsemen. In doing so, we act as your collective voice. With that said, sometimes there comes a point in time when members have different priorities, viewpoints, perspective, or agenda items. This can be a positive, if approached the correct way through communication and teamwork. I, along with our team and board, are always available for conversations or meetings.

PTHA EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
Jeffrey A. Matty Jr.

We very much look forward to working for, and working with you, throughout all of 2025.

Thank you for allowing us to represent you,
Happy New Year!

2024 Year End Summary

Happy New Year! As our horses all turn another year older, we're reminded of the strength, grace, and determination it takes to race through life's challenges. Here's to a 2025 filled with joy, health, and boundless opportunities! PTHA's Turning for Home, Inc. (TFH) remains steadfast in our mission to ensure every one of our retired racehorses transitions into a safe, loving, and purposeful home. This year, we've achieved significant milestones thanks to our supportive owners, who entrust us with the rehabilitation, retraining, and rehoming of their horses with the help of an incredibly hard-working network of Partner Farms.

A Year of Impact

TFH's commitment to the care and placement of retired racehorses was underscored by managing over $1.14 million in total expenses, with 90% of every dollar going directly to program services—a testament to our dedication and efficiency.

Program Expenses: $1,026,000 (90% of total expenses)

- Horse Care Expenses: $870,000
- Direct Program Salaries: $117,000
- Program Sponsorships and Promotions: $25,000
- Program Professional Fees: $15,000
- Average Total Program Horse Care Costs: Rose slightly to $2,500, below current Aftercare rates and reflecting increased costs for veterinary services, castrations, transportation, and rehabilitation.

Our unwavering dedication to each horse's well-being ensures they are given every opportunity to find a second career, supported by a dedicated system of Veterinarians, Trainers, Surgeons, Dentists, Farriers, Therapists, Shippers, and Volunteers and is reflected by low euthanasia rates. This year, thanks to increased take-out from purses, TFH was able to save three pneumonia cases, intervene in colics and sick horses on the backstretch to send them to the clinic, help neurological horses recover, and extend over a month of hospital care to our own Johnny Ritt who is now adoptable to a safe pasture home at New Beginnings Thoroughbreds.

New Beginnings Thoroughbreds stepped up to help save Johnny Ritt after TFH was called in. Thanks to increased financial support, TFH could send Johnny Ritt to the Mid-Atlantic Equine Medical Center for care when he could not stand due to a wrenched back following a fall during his last race. This would be a tough decision in prior years, but he is happy now.

Administrative Expenses: $38,000 (3% of total expenses)

- Streamlined operations kept administrative costs minimal, directing more resources to horse care.
- Additional staff have improved vital follow-up so owners can see more of what their horses are doing and strengthened communication with our adopters.

Fundraising Expenses: $73,000 (7% of total expenses)

Efficient fundraising strategies actually raised income for our program and allowed us to expand our Outreach, from the Golf Outing, the All Thoroughbred Showdown, the Retired Racehorse Project, and our community outreach tables where TFH swag is readily available. Support from racing owners, jockeys, the Pennsylvania Horse Breeders Association, PTHA, Parx Racing Management, donors, Partner Farm Managers and volunteers played a critical role in meeting our budgetary needs.

Since our founding in 2008, TFH has offered safe retirement to over 4,360 horses, including a record 337 horses in 2024—47 of which entered the program in October alone. We have successfully prevented Parx horses from entering the slaughter pipeline.

Placement Highlights:

- TFH facilitated $670,000 in placement fees, relocations, rescues, rehabilitation, and transportation through partnerships with 30 experienced and approved farms, ensuring each horse the opportunity to find a suitable new home.
  - New partner farms, including TD Equine (PA), Seahorse Stables (NJ), and Gwin Equestrian (KY), expanded our network and provided new outlets for Thoroughbreds across the region.
- We are especially proud of our industry-leading lifetime relocation guarantee, which allows every horse to return to the nearest farm and ensures there is no excuse for them to end up in harmful situations.

Veterinary Care

In 2024, we invested over $190,000 in surgeries, veterinary care, and screenings, mostly through a partnership for great discounted rates at The Mid-Atlantic Equine Medical Center, reaffirming our mission to provide safe second careers for our horses and, at the least, every chance to find a home. These surgeon-advised interventions often make all the difference in providing a second chance at a performance career and allow our well-bred athletes to transition into Sporthorse careers. TFH also covers the costs of castrations for all colts ( 34 this year), taking the burden from owners and ensuring timely transitions that save on day rates. We commend our trainers and owners who retire their horses responsibly, supporting proactive horse care that contributes to a demand for our athletes and strengthens our Industry.

Community Support and Fundraising

TFH's community events raised awareness and spotlighted our horses while supporting our mission:

- Events Revenue: Surpassed projections, creating new connections and opportunities for engagement through the Farm Show, Horseworld Expo, PTHA Golf Outing, TFH Day, RRP Makeover, and the all-new All Thoroughbred Showdown.
- Merchandise Sales: Generated $5,800, thanks to our incredible volunteers at Parx tables, golf outings, and expos.

Our social media platforms continued to grow, with over 10,000 followers on Facebook and Instagram, helping us share success stories and connect with potential adopters.

Looking Ahead to 2025

As we move forward, TFH is committed to:

- Optimizing Expenses: Targeting a 5% reduction in operational costs while maintaining high care standards.
- Enhancing Fundraising: Launching a TFH newsletter and strengthening our website's digital fundraising and merchandise store.
- Building New Partnerships: Collaborating with therapeutic riding centers and like-minded farms to create additional placement opportunities and offset some rehab costs.

Thank You

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to the owners, jockeys, trainers, horsemen, veterinarians, shippers, caretakers, adopters, and partner farms who believe in our mission, as well as the PTHA Horsemen and staff, PHBA, Let's Go Racing, and the Parx Racing community. Special thanks go to the PTHA Board Members, President Bob Hutt, and Executive Director Jeff Matty, Jr., for their leadership and unwavering support.

Together, we are creating brighter futures for retired racehorses—one step at a time. Here's to continuing this vital work in 2025 and beyond. - Thank you for allowing me to help your horses for the last decade - Dani

An open letter to Midnight:

Sharing a piece of fan mail from one of our favorite adopters and ambassadors from Safe Haven Equine
JC - Star Of Midnight

My Dearest Darling Delinquent,

Let me start by saying I love you greatly, you are stunning and your enthusiasm for life is infectious. However like with many overly positive starts to a paragraph there is a but coming, and here it is, BUT we need to discuss when is an appropriate time for tanking off.

You started life on the race track, where you were supposed to earn your keep by going fast, except you mostly did not. You could have been famous like your nearly identical half-sister Midnight Bisou, who won $14 million and is now living in luxury. Except you are not; instead, you are stuck with me. You managed to intersperse wins and places with losing by 30 lengths. This dichotomy suggests that sometimes you chose not to tank off at a time that would have been very appropriate to do so.

You have, however, subsequently decided it is appropriate to go fast in a few locations that make me question your decision making skills. Example one, the dressage ring, this is not the time nor the place, please I beg of you. Example two, and the trigger for this letter, towards the dog walker, the adorable puppy and the crowd of hikers whilst I asked you to stop, with increasing levels of insistence, ranging from polite to hopefully there are no children around to hear what I just said. (We did stop in good time and were greeted by an excited puppy and the laughter of the people who heard my yelling.)

In summary:

Appropriate places for galloping:

The racetrack (this would have made a number of people happy)
Cross country (not downhill into skinnies, I know you are going to jump them but it is terrifying.)

Inappropriate:

The dressage ring
Downhill into skinnies
Towards dog walkers whilst I frantically try to stop you (actually anywhere while I am trying to stop you)

All my love and upper body strength,
Sophie

(No dog walkers were harmed in the making of this post and I am careful to only gallop on trails with appropriate footing and good sight lines so that I am not going to run anyone over.)

(I) Have a video of her jumping 1.45m/4' 9" out of a badly set combination as a demonstration of one of the many reasons I put up with her antics.

Heartbeat of the Backstretch

By : Nikki Guzman

Broadcaster and author Vernon McLellan has a quote that states, “What the new year brings to you will depend a great deal on what you bring to the new year”. This year, let us continue to work together to encourage one another, to be kinder and more compassionate, and to acknowledge the wonderful influence that each of us can have on others.

Many people assist others in the background, yet even if their work is essential to operations, some others might not see or recognize it. Equally, or more importantly, it is critical to recognize the worth of the individuals who work in all of these positions.

Liz Daniels, who grew up in Philadelphia, had various jobs, including working at an umbrella factory, before being introduced to the racetrack by her boyfriend. She had never worked with horses before, but she needed money to pay her bills, so she took on the job as a hotwalker. She was loyal to the trainers who had given her the opportunity and would remain with them until they chose to leave PARX. Liz liked how there were so many options at PARX to pick up extra jobs and earn money. She eventually started cleaning stalls for other trainers, became a dorm room rep, and even got a job working on the front side.

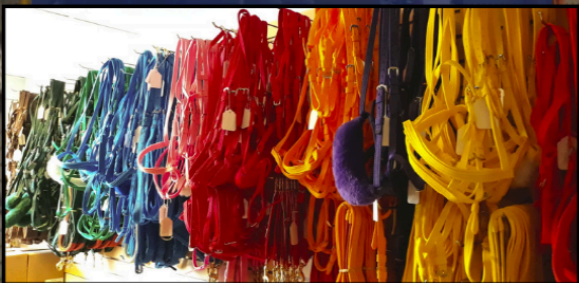

These days, you can find her in the Rec Hall washing and folding up to 8 loads of horse laundry for many trainers here at PARX. She offers pick-up and delivery to the barns in addition to doing laundry, which is a crucial service on the backstretch. As a result, the grooms and trainers have more time to devote to the horses. Although most people don't love doing laundry, Liz finds that it allows her to interact with others and still be a useful part of the backstretch community. Her reliability is invaluable for many of our trainers, and it is greatly appreciated!

This year, try one thing. When you meet someone who does a job that is different from yours, ask them a question that shows your interest in their line of work, and then acknowledge or appreciate what they do.

You just might make their day a little brighter.
